

“Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.”

(John 20:24-25)

Lessons to Learn from Thomas Sunday

1. There is no lack of proof for Bible facts, but without faith no amount of knowledge or evidence will suffice.

2. If we do not seek to touch and be touched by God,
we shall continue to be dull, uncomprehending, sealed lumps of clay.

3. The only thing which is worse than doubt is indifference to the Truth.

4. The story proves the truthfulness of the disciples: how they hide no faults, either their own or others', but record them with great honesty.

5. We should be not only eager to know the Truth,
but also to live according to it.
