

“So they all ate and were filled”

Luke 9:17

How did the Good Shepherd meet the needs of everyone of His flock?

1. He listened to His disciples when they needed to be heard

“And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done”

Luke 9:10

2. He gave His disciples His undivided attention

“He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. ”

Luke 9:10

3. He received with love the uninvited multitudes

“But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them”

Luke 9:11

4. He nourished the multitudes with the word of God

“...and spoke to them about the kingdom of God”
*Luke 9:11

5. ...and healed those in need of healing

6. He taught the disciples a new lesson in how they should make their calculations

7. He did not overlook the need for the earthly food either
